Scan the QR Code for tickets, maps, and more!

The Tri-County Amateur Radio Club sponsors an annual spring swap meet for amateur operators, computer enthusiasts, and the resourceful public at the Jefferson County Fair Park, 503 N Jackson Street, in Jefferson, Wisconsin. The Swap Fest is an area tradition that gathers people from Illinois, Central, and South-Eastern Wisconsin. Here's some of what you may find:

- New and used Amateur radio equipment
- General Use radios like CB, GMRS, FRS, and LMR
- Antennas
- Electronic Parts and Supplies
- Computer gear
- Cables
- Books
- And much, much more!

Whether you want to prepare for bad weather, add to your communication tools, find cool electronics items, or talk with hams from around the area, this is the place. Foodies, the kitchen will be open for breakfast starting at 8 AM!

Admission tickets are $10 per person, Kids 12 and under are free. Save 20% if you purchase online in advance on the TCARC website at <https://www.w9mqb.org/SwapFest>, where you'll also find maps and directions to the event. Parking is free! Hundreds of dollars of door prizes, with prizes every 30 minutes. Your online ticket automatically enters you into the drawings, but you must be present to win radios, books, antennas, gift certificates, and more!

Questions? Scan the QR code above or email us at HamFest@W9MQB.org for answers!

See you on March 15th!
